

Divisional Charts (Vargas)

Divisional charts play an important role for assessing the condition (strength or weakness) of the planets so as to precisely predict the events. Analyzing a horoscope / chart of any native without analyzing or ignoring the associated / corresponding divisional charts will surely leads to wrong results. It is, therefore Maharshi Parashara has laid strong emphasis on the usage of these charts. Each divisional chart has been assigned some weightage while assessing the results. Most of the astrologers generally make use of these charts for predicting the results. Regarding assessment, there are no fixed methods / rules rather the same can be done using multiple ways. One such way is to treat the corresponding divisional chart individually on similar lines as that of D-1 chart (Birth Horoscope) and carry out the due diligence. Generally planets posited / placed in their own sign; exaltation sign; friendly sign; etc. considered to be as good. Under such a scenario, a planet acquires strength and capable enough to give good results in its period. For this reason, unfolding the secrets of divisional charts itself a grey area on which many people does researches.
